Introducing Mark Hans

The latest addition to the Park & Recreation Products sales force is Mark Hans. His territory includes Eastern Wisconsin and Northeastern Illinois.

Mark brings seven years of industry experience to Park and Recreation Products. In his previous position, Mark worked directly with architects, engineers and end users; following projects from conceptual design to completion. He was the Wisconsin representative for Musco and gained extensive experience in planning, design, budgeting, specification writing, bidding and installation of projects. During Mark's tenure, Musco Sports Lighting installed over 250 lighting projects in Wisconsin including:

- Engelmann Field – UW-Milwaukee
- Titan Stadium – UW-Oshkosh
- Goodman Field (softball) – UW-Madison
- Wisconsin Lutheran College (football and soccer)
- Warner Park (baseball) – Madison
- Goerke Park (football) – Stevens Point
- Carson Park (football) – UW-Eau Claire
- Bollinger Athletic Complex – UW-Eau Claire

Prior to working for Musco, Mark was a regional sales manager for Monopanel Technologies, Inc. in West Allis. He resides in Waukesha, Wisconsin, with his wife Sara, and two sons.

Park and Recreation Products, Inc. is a manufacturers' representative firm providing design assistance to architects, engineers, contractors and customers. To see samples from our portfolio of projects, visit www.parknecproducts.com/portfolio.html
